

Council Customer Service Centres to reopen

Council will reopen its Customer Service Centres in Colac and Apollo Bay on Tuesday 9 June. A number of measures will be in place to ensure safety and compliance with Victorian Government COVID restrictions:

- Cashless payments are preferred
- There will be a limit to the number of customers in the Customer Service Centre at any one time
- A physical distance of 1.5 metres between people must be maintained at all times
- Hand sanitising stations will be in place for customer use

While Customer Service Centres will be open, Council encourages the Colac Otway community to utilise online information and payment services via the Council website to limit the number of trips away from home.
